Handwritten text in an ancient script, likely Tamil, arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines across the palm leaf. The script is finely etched into the surface of the dried leaf. The text appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a religious or philosophical treatise, given the nature of such inscriptions. The leaf shows signs of age, including discoloration and small holes.

Handwritten text in an ancient script, likely Pahlavi, covering the entire length of the fragment. The script is densely packed and appears to be a continuous narrative or legal text. The fragment is heavily damaged, with significant portions missing from the left and right edges, and several large holes are visible in the center.

Handwritten text in an ancient script, likely Pahlavi, arranged in approximately 15 horizontal lines across the parchment fragment. The script is dense and cursive, with some characters appearing to be in a different script or dialect. The text is written on a piece of aged, brown parchment that shows signs of wear, including two distinct circular holes and irregular edges. The ink is dark, and the overall appearance is that of an ancient manuscript fragment.
